These Articles form the constitution of FSB.

1. The name of the Company (known as “FSB”) is the “NATIONAL FEDERATION OF SELF EMPLOYED & SMALL BUSINESSES LIMITED”.
2. The registered office of FSB is situated in England.
3. The liability of the members is limited.
4. (a) Every Member of FSB guarantees to contribute no more than £1 to the assets of FSB, in the event of the same being wound up while they are a Member, and within one year after they cease to be a Member.

(b) FSB is a non-profit making company limited by guarantee and any surplus income over expenditure cannot be distributed by way of dividend or otherwise to its members or any other party except where the company goes into liquidation or otherwise ceases to trade.
5. The objects for which FSB is established are as follows:
 - (A) To make representations to any government within the United Kingdom on legislation and other public matters which affect the business or professional interests of its Members.
 - (B) To protect, promote and further the interests of persons who are self-employed or direct or control a business and to provide a national voice and platform for such persons.
 - (C) To engage in such other activities as will on a broad interpretation promote the success of the Company and assist in achieving the objectives set out in clauses 5 (A) and (B) above.

MEMBERSHIP AND ELIGIBILITY

6. Membership of FSB will be open to any person in accordance with the following:
 - (a) Eligibility – Membership of FSB will be open to persons who at the time of joining are self employed persons and to persons who otherwise direct or control or intend to direct or control a small business in the United Kingdom, or who are otherwise acceptable to the Directors, provided that they satisfy the conditions of membership as determined by the Directors from time to time which shall at all times promote or be consistent with the objects of FSB.
 - (b) Application for Membership – All applications for membership will be submitted in the form prescribed for processing and registration in accordance with procedures laid down by the Directors from time to time.
 - (c) Categories of Membership – The categories of Membership and their rights as defined by the Directors from time to time are available from Head Office.
 - (d) Registration Fee – Any applicant for membership (including any former Member whose membership has lapsed) may in addition to the annual subscription be required to pay an initial registration fee set from time to time by the Directors.
 - (e) Holding of Office – Any Members who have full voting and membership rights will be eligible subject to satisfying eligibility criteria determined by the Directors from time to time to be nominated for and to hold office at any level in FSB.

7. (a) The Directors may refuse to accept an application for membership.
- (b) The Directors may refuse to accept the renewal subscription from any Member.
8. (a) Subject to clause 7 (a) every person applying for Membership of FSB will sign a form of consent to become a Member and be entered onto the Register of Members and by doing so will agree to be bound by the Code of Conduct and will acknowledge that any activities undertaken on behalf of FSB will be as a volunteer.
- (b) The Member will then be allocated to the Region appropriate to his registered address or as otherwise requested by the Member. A Member may apply in writing to the Directors to change Region in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Directors from time to time.
9. (a) The ordinary annual subscription payable by each class of Member of FSB will be such sum as may from time to time be fixed by the Directors.
- (b) Subject to the Directors exercising their discretion to the contrary from time to time, any Member who resigns from FSB shall not be entitled to a refund of their subscription.
10. Members of FSB will cease to be Members if:-
- (a) Their renewal subscription has not been paid by the renewal date;
 - (b) by notice in writing to FSB that they resign their membership;
 - (c) they are expelled from FSB in accordance with the rules and procedures determined by the Directors from time to time;
 - (d) their application for membership or their renewal subscription is rejected under Articles 7 (a) or 7 (b).

Provided that :-

- (i) Upon subsequent applications for membership by persons who have previously ceased to be Members upon the grounds specified in (a) or (b) above the Directors may in the exercise of their discretion under Article 7 above require inter alia that they pay subscriptions in arrears and/or which have fallen due since their previous membership ceased.
- (ii) Members of FSB during any periods in which they have been suspended will not be entitled to vote or to seek nomination for any office within FSB.

REGIONS

11. The Directors will determine the number of Regions from time to time subject to there being a minimum of twelve Regions.
12. Each Region within FSB will conform to the Regional rules and procedures set down from time to time by the Directors.

FUNDS OF THE FEDERATION

13. The basis of the funding of Regions will be determined by the Directors from time to time taking into account the financial position and objectives of the company.

THE SCRUTINY BODY

14. (i) The Scrutiny Body will consist of up to twelve but not less than eight Scrutiny Body members. Scrutiny Body members will be appointed for a period of up to three years and will be eligible to be re-appointed provided that no person shall be able to serve on the Scrutiny Body for more than six years consecutively.

(ii) The National Chair and such other Directors as agreed with the Scrutiny Body Chair from time to time unless specifically excused shall attend and will be entitled to speak at Scrutiny Body meetings but will not have a vote.

DUTIES OF SCRUTINY BODY MEMBERS

15. The eligibility requirements, duties and responsibilities of a Scrutiny Body member appointed in accordance with Article 14 will be determined by the Directors from time to time with the agreement of the Scrutiny Body.
16. The Scrutiny Body will elect its own Scrutiny Body Chair annually from amongst its number. If the Scrutiny Body Chair is not present, the National Chair will appoint a Chair for the meeting from amongst the Scrutiny Body members present.
17. The Scrutiny Body will meet together for the disposal of business as and when required with a minimum of four meetings per year or at any other time if not less than 50 per cent plus one of the Scrutiny Body request a meeting by written notice to the Scrutiny Body Chair with particulars of the reason for such a meeting being called.
18. The Scrutiny Body Chair will convene such meetings of the Scrutiny Body giving at least seven days' notice in writing to all Scrutiny Body members but with the consent of not less than three quarters of the members a meeting may be convened by such notice as those Scrutiny Body members may think fit. In the event that no Scrutiny Body Chair has been elected by the Scrutiny Body the National Chair will replace the Scrutiny Body Chair for the purposes of Articles 17 and 18.
19. No business will be transacted at any meeting of the Scrutiny Body unless a quorum of 50 per cent plus one of the Scrutiny Body members is present subject to a minimum of 5 Scrutiny Body members being present.
20. The procedure for the conduct of the meetings will be determined by the Scrutiny Body from time to time.
21. The business of the Scrutiny Body will be:-
 - (a) to receive reports from the Directors at each meeting of the Scrutiny Body, and from the Disputes and Disciplinary Committee and Procedures Committee at any meeting when requested by Scrutiny Body;

- (b) in the event that the Directors are considered to be failing to follow the strategic direction of FSB or are acting in a manner which the Scrutiny Body considers to be contrary to the best interests of FSB then the Scrutiny Body may call a General Meeting and may propose such resolutions as it considers necessary for consideration by the Membership. The resolution to call a General Meeting in these circumstances will require a majority of Scrutiny Body members present of not less than 75 per cent;
- (c) not less than one month prior to the AGM to receive the income and expenditure account and balance sheet and the report by the Directors to members of FSB;
- (d) the Scrutiny Body will nominate and elect the members of the Disputes and Disciplinary Committee as and when required;
- (e) to consider any relevant matter referred to the Scrutiny Body by the Directors.

THE DIRECTORS

- 22.(a) The Directors will consist of the National Chair, two National Vice Chairs, up to nine other Directors, and the Chief Executive Officer of FSB who will hold the position of Director from the date of their appointment and will cease to be a Director at the point they cease to hold their position as Chief Executive Officer and subclauses 22 (b), (c) and (d) below and Article 26 (c) shall not apply to the Chief Executive Officer.
- (b) Any Member who is willing to act as a Director and is permitted by law to do so may be appointed to be a Director by ordinary resolution for a term not exceeding three years and will be eligible to be re-appointed provided that no person will be able to hold the same office for more than six years in total or seek appointment as a Director for more than twelve years in total.
- (c) In exceptional circumstances if both the Board of Directors and Scrutiny Body separately consent (by a majority of those present) a person may be re-elected either:
- (i) to the same office beyond the six year limit; and/or
 - (ii) as a Director beyond the twelve years service;
for one year on no more than three occasions in either case.
- (d) In the event of the death, incapacity, removal or resignation of a Director during their period of office, or in the event of a vacancy arising for any other reason then, save where pursuant to the provisions of Article 25 below, the Members have elected a successor, the Directors may appoint a Director who is eligible to hold such office until the following AGM.
23. Any Member will be eligible to express an interest in nomination as a Director provided that they do not hold a self-employed service contract with FSB or one of its subsidiaries or any service provider to FSB or its subsidiaries, that they are a fully paid up Member entitled to vote immediately prior to nomination, can demonstrate an understanding and knowledge of the objectives of FSB and have a proven track record and relevant skills, experience and knowledge consistent with the proposed role, and meet the other requisite selection criteria from time to time.
24. The Directors may co-opt persons on the basis of their expertise. These co-opted persons may serve until the next AGM without the right to vote but shall be eligible to be co-opted again.

25. In addition and without prejudice to the provisions of Sections 168 and 169 of the Act, FSB may by Ordinary Resolution at a General Meeting remove any Director before the expiration of their period of office and FSB may by Ordinary Resolution appoint a replacement who shall hold office until the next AGM.
26. The office of a Director will be vacated:-
 - (a) if a receiving order is made against them or they make any arrangement or composition with their creditors;
 - (b) if they become of unsound mind;
 - (c) if they cease to be a member of FSB;
 - (d) if by notice in writing to FSB they resign their office;
 - (e) if they are removed from office by resolution duly passed pursuant to Section 168 of the Act;
 - (f) if they are removed from office by a special resolution duly passed;
 - (g) if they are absent without permission of the Board for three consecutive Board meetings;
 - (h) if they cease to hold the office of Chief Executive Officer;
 - (i) if they act in a manner likely to bring FSB into disrepute as determined by a majority of Directors present of not less than 75 per cent.
27. The business of FSB will be managed by the Directors who will have the authority to do all things which are not by statute or the Constitution reserved to the Scrutiny Body or Members in General Meeting.
28. The Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board of Directors.
29. The Directors will meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn, and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. The quorum will be 50% plus one with a minimum of one Director from the National Chair and National Vice Chairs. Questions arising at any meeting will be decided by a majority of votes, and in case of an equality of votes the status quo will prevail.
30. Any three Directors may at any time, summon a meeting of the Directors by notice served upon all Directors.
31. The National Chair will be the chair of the Directors. If the National Chair is not present within five minutes from the time appointed to hold the meeting, a National Vice Chair will chair the meeting and in the absence of a National Vice Chair the Directors present will choose one of their number to be chair of the meeting.
32. A meeting of the Directors at which a quorum is present will be competent to exercise all the authorities, powers, and discretions by or under the Constitution for the time being vested in the Directors generally.

33. All bona fide acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of any sub-committee of the Directors or by any person acting as a Director will, notwithstanding it is later discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such member or person or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified to be a Director.
34. The Directors will cause proper minutes to be made of all appointments made by the Directors and of the proceedings of all meetings of the Directors and of all committees and all business transacted at such meetings, and all such minutes signed by the chair of such meeting or by the chair of the next succeeding meeting, will be accepted as correct without the need for any supporting evidence.
35. A resolution in writing signed by all Directors for the time being, or of any committee of the Directors, who are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Directors or any such committee will be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors or of such committee duly convened and constituted.

SUBSIDIARY COMPANIES

36. The directors of a wholly owned subsidiary company may exercise all powers granted to them by the subsidiary company articles of association. The Directors will review the management and administration of the affairs of such a wholly owned subsidiary by its directors.
37. The chair and directors of any subsidiary company will be appointed and removed by the Directors and will be selected from the Directors.

POLICY COMMITTEE

38. (a) The UK Policy Committee chaired by a National Vice Chair will be responsible to the Directors for research, formulation and, where authorised, the execution of the policies of FSB.
(b) Members of this committee and any sub-committees of this committee will be appointed by a National Vice Chair in consultation with the Directors.

DISPUTES AND DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

39. The Scrutiny Body will as and when required appoint a Committee consisting of up to six Members none of whom will at the date of appointment or during their term of office hold any other office above regional level within FSB which will be called the Disputes and Disciplinary Committee and the rules relating to the eligibility of its Members and operation and procedures will be determined by the Directors from time to time in consultation with the Scrutiny Body.

GENERAL MEETINGS

40. FSB will hold a General Meeting in every calendar year as its AGM at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, provided that every AGM shall be held not more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding AGM, and within the next financial year following such AGM provided that the AGM may be held by suitable electronic means, as permitted by The Companies Act, and as agreed by the Directors in consultation with the Scrutiny Body, in which each participant may communicate with all the other participants.

41. Subject to the rights attaching to different categories of membership referred to in Article 6 (c), every Member will have one vote and will be entitled to vote at any General Meeting, either in person or by Proxy. Directors appointed at a General Meeting will take office at the beginning of the following day.
42. Unless expressly provided, only Members who are registered and who have paid their subscription and other sums (if any) due and payable to FSB in respect of their membership, or a Proxy appointed by them, will be entitled to attend any General Meeting and participate in any vote or Poll.
43. Every Member and any other person entitled under the Act (including the Auditors) will be given:-
 - (a) Not less than 21 days' notice in writing of every AGM or any adjournment of such meeting or any meeting convened to pass a special resolution.
 - (b) Not less than 14 days' notice of any other General Meeting.All notices will specify the place, date and time of the meeting and in the case of special business the general nature of such business.
44. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person entitled to receive notice thereof will not invalidate any resolution passed, or proceeding had, at any meeting.
45. (a) Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing in the form specified by the Directors from time to time;
 - (b) Unless a Form of Proxy indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
 - (i) allowing the Proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
 - (ii) appointing that Proxy in relation to any adjournment of the General Meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
46. (a) A Member who is entitled to attend speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a Poll) at a General Meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid Form of Proxy has been delivered to FSB by or on behalf of that person.
 - (b) An appointment under a Form of Proxy may be revoked by delivery to the appointed external provider of electoral services of a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the Member by whom or on whose behalf the Form of Proxy was given.

- (c) A notice revoking a Proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- (d) If a Form of Proxy is not executed by the Member appointing the Proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the Member's behalf.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 47. All business will be deemed special that is transacted at a General Meeting, and all that is transacted at an AGM will also be deemed special, with the exception of the consideration of the income and expenditure account and balance sheet, and the reports of the Directors and of the Auditors, the appointment of Directors and the appointment of and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors.
- 48. No business will be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided, thirty members present personally or by proxy will be a quorum.
- 49. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, will be dissolved. In any other case it will stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or at such other place as the Directors may determine, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting the Members present will be a quorum.
- 50. The National Chair will preside as chair at every General Meeting, but if at any meeting the National Chair is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, or shall be unwilling to preside, a National Vice Chair or if a National Vice Chair is not present, or is unwilling to preside, the Members present will choose a Member present to preside.
- 51. The chair may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business will be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting will be given in the same manner as of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, the Members will not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- 52. At any General Meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting will be decided on a show of hands, unless a Poll is, before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands demanded by the chair, or by not less than five Members present in person or by Proxy and unless a Poll be so demanded a declaration by the chair of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of FSB will be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution. The demand for a Poll may be withdrawn. On a show of hands every Member present will have one vote notwithstanding that the Member may also have been appointed as a Proxy for one or more members.

53. Subject to the provisions of Article 52, if a Poll be demanded in the manner aforesaid, it will be taken at such time and place, and in such manner, as the chair of the meeting directs, and the result of the Poll will be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the Poll was demanded.
54. In the case of equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a Poll, the status quo will prevail.
55. The demand for a Poll other than on the election of a chair will not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a Poll has been demanded.

NOTICES

56. A notice may be served by FSB upon any Member, either personally or by sending it through the post, prepaid, addressed to such member at his registered address as appearing in the Register of Members or in electronic format or on FSB's website subject to complying with the provisions of Schedule 5 of the Act.
57. Any Member described in the Register of Members as not being resident in the United Kingdom, who has from time to time given FSB an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be served will be entitled to have notices served at such address but, save as aforesaid, and as provided by the Companies Acts, only those Members who are described in the Register of Members as having an address within the United Kingdom will be entitled to receive notices from FSB.
58. (a) Any notices, if served by post, will be deemed to have been served on the third day following that on which the notice is put prepaid into the post, and on proving such service it will be sufficient to prove that the notice was properly addressed, put into the Post Office and the date of posting properly recorded by the sender in the postal register of FSB.
(b) Any notice served in electronic format will be deemed to have been served on the day after it had been sent or in respect of matters displayed on FSB's website it is deemed to have been received by the intended recipient the day after it was first made available on the website or, if later, the day after any electronic communication giving notice or notification that the information is available on the website.

AD HOC PAYMENTS

59. The Directors may utilise funds to make such payments as they deem appropriate to compensate Members who fulfil duties or services in the interest of FSB.

Such payments will be ad hoc and may increase or decrease. No Member is entitled to receive such payments for their voluntary work for FSB and such payments as are made are ex-gratia.

ARTICLE OF INDEMNITY

60. Every Director or other officer of FSB will be entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of FSB against all losses or liabilities which they may sustain or incur in or about the execution of the duties of their office, or otherwise in relation thereto, including any liability incurred by them in defending proceedings whether civil or criminal in which judgement is given in their favour, or in which they are acquitted, and no such person shall be liable for any loss, damage or misfortune which may happen to or be incurred by FSB in execution of the duties of their office or in relation thereon. But this Article will only have effect insofar as its provisions are not avoided by any provision of the Companies Act or by any other provision of law.
